[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 27.

Russian Telegraph

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The [illegible] Borsen Zeitung says all preparations have been made [illegible] in Behring Straits for the completion of the telegraph line between Russia and America early [illegible]. In the course of the present year the telegraph will be constructed over a distance of 3,000 miles [illegible] and lines will be finished from [illegible] the [illegible] along the valley of the river [illegible] even as far as to [illegible] with the [illegible] line. The cable between Grantry Haven and [illegible] a distance 400 miles and that between Cape [illegible] and Cape [illegible] in Bay of Anadir will, it is said, be laid before the end of [illegible]. American and Russian energy has been very quick in taking steps to complete the line which is to connect and hold together the [illegible] although baptized in champagne and heralded [illegible] of fireworks, cannot be regarded without a slight feeling of uneasiness by some of the westerly nations of Europe.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Since the completion of the Atlantic Cable and the successful picking up of the old one whereby there are two cables in successful operation, the Russian extension of the Western Union Telegraph Company has been regarded as a failure [illegible] completed [illegible] on account of the great length of time it will require to transmit messages it can never compete with the Atlantic cables. Regarding it in this light the Board of Directors of the Western Union Company have passed a resolution to pay back to the Russian Extension stockholders the calls and interests; in other words to purchase the extension for $[illegible],000 with interest, payable in Western Union bonds at ninety cents on the dollar, thus creating a debt of $3,000,000. The holders of shares regard it as a grab on part of an interested ring of the Board of Directors, but they are helpless to prevent it.

Santa Anna Redivivous.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Gen Santa Anna has located his headquarters on Staten Island and has opened a regular business bureau for the [illegible] of [illegible] the delivery of Mexico from French authority. He has [illegible] reports go, constantly, with [illegible] that subject, and has enlisted the sympathies of the Fenian Brotherhood. Col Roberts, Gen Sweeny and other Fenian Chiefs are zealous in their attachment to his cause and are educating their [illegible] to that belief. Three large steamers have been purchased for the use and it is believed for their transportation to Mexico. It is stated further that the General is soon to return to St. Thomas.

A Political Movement.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The rumor seems to be well defined and accepted by the Eastern papers that the late mission of Thurlow Weed, Stephen Crosswell and other politicians to Washington was to urge the President to recommend Southern States to adopt the Constitutional amendment, and that in this they had the cooperation of Mr Seward.

A new three story building at Hillsdale, Michigan, known as the Commercial block, fell with a crash yesterday, involving two adjoining smaller buildings in the ruins, killing Mr Dudley, his wife and eldest son, who were living in the building.

The Political Situation.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The following are the leaders from the New York papers of Wednesday, Sept. 26th. The Times says: We have urged upon the country the adoption of the constitutional amendment because we believe it to be just and one that ought to be made. We supported it long before the Tribune did, and we shall continue to urge its adoption without reference to the action of Congress in regard to the Southern States, but we should like to know that its ratification by the South would be received in a friendly spirit by Congress and that it would do something to allay the bitterness of political strife which now seems to pervade the country. The Tribune can do a good deal toward satisfying the public anxiety on this subject. In another editorial the Times says, one strong argument urged by the Democrats is that the Southern States will never accept the third section of the constitutional amendment, but thinks they should and will accept it, and that under it new men will take control in Southern politics and old leaders be gradually neglected or forgotten. It says the South will hardly be willing to sacrifice all the great advantages of sharing in the government for the sake of these old leaders.

The Herald says President Johnson's [illegible] of the formation of a new powerful conservative Northern party, based upon the Philadelphia convention, have been scattered to the winds. The Democracy, in adhering to their old broken and disjointed ideas, have defeated this new national party movement. The President thus has no alternative but to fall in with the reconstruction plan of Congress. But the points thus gained we are sure from facts received as to the present inclinations of Johnson will immediately facilitate the work of Southern restoration. Had the new party been organized as contemplated the conflict between the radicals might have delayed for several years to come the re-admission of the excluded States. Now we see no obstacle to their admission which may not be overcome before the 4th of March 1867.

The Evening Post says it is now evident that the people of the Northern States mean to insist upon the adoption of the amendment proposed by Congress. It is useless to discuss the causes which have brought them to this conclusion. The fact is undeniable, and it is the part of practical statesmanship everywhere in all parts of the country, to be guided by it. The President would do wisely to use his influence with the leaders of public opinion in the Southern States to impress this fact upon their minds and to counsel them to wise and statesmanly action. The shortest way to perfect reorganization now, is to adopt the amendment.

The Tribune says, so long as the rebel element now dominant at the South could trust in the omnipotence of Johnsonism, there was no sign of relenting on its part. Tennessee being under loyal rule promptly ratified the Constitutional amendment, but no State over which the rebels have sway ever considers the propriety of doing so, and the Legislature of Texas—rebel to the core—has been guilty of the foolish impertinence of returning the Constitutional amendment to the State Department instead of retaining it among its archives. After its rejection we trust Governor Seward, or whoever may succeed him, will take good care that Texas shall send for it when she discovers that she wants it. We still hope to see the South come forward and offer to solve all remaining difficulties by accepting the broader and simpler platform of universal amnesty and impartial suffrage. But in any contingency we stand by the Constitutional amendment and look to see it ratified, and most, if not all of the Southern States restored to representation.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says the statement having prevailed that the President is about to modify his policy to the extent of recommending the Constitutional amendment to the adoption of the Southern States, it is given a most emphatic denial. The President considers the amendment a violation of the fifth article of the Constitution, and therefore invalid, and that it would be in contravention of his oath to encourage it in any way. There is however reason to believe that he contemplates recommending to Congress at its approaching session, first the admission of representatives of all the States, and then the proposal of amendments to the Constitution embodying in a less objectionable form the essential elements of that now pending.

Money Market

The Post's article says the dullness in the general market has stimulated speculations in stocks. The loan market is extremely easy and rates tend to favor borrowers. Government stocks are strong for foreign exchange and firm without much activity. Gold firmer.

Flour less active, without decided change. Wheat unchanged. Corn one cent lower.

The Commercial says the Assistant Treasurer has received orders from Washington suspending the conversion of thirties into bonds of 1865.

Fenian Matters.

Stephens' headquarters were all bustle and activity yesterday. Important negotiations are pending which when published will astonish the brotherhood. A nolle prosequi has been entered in the case of Roberts, the Fenian Head Center, and his case has been dismissed.

George M Snow, for many years collector [illegible] of the Tribune, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease.

Atlantic Cable—Gen. Dix at Washington.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—No cable news yet, but Craig telegraphs this morning that the press agent in London sends regularly at least two reports daily, therefore whether the land line works or not, the expenses are the same and collections would be the same.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Gen Dix had an interview this morning with the President, and subsequently with Secretary McCulloch, and returned to New York this evening. It is not publicly known whether he will accept the French mission or the naval office.

Storms on the North Eastern Coast

FORT AUGUSTA, Sept. 28.—There was an awful gale [illegible] on Saturday, September 24, on the east coast of Newfoundland, and a great many wrecks have been reported. A French frigate was lost at St. Pierre and several coasters were wrecked. Over 100 dead bodies were picked up at St. Pierre on Sunday, which were lost from different vessels. No further particulars have come to hand.

The Imperial Consul in this city pronounces this story false. The Imperialists took away the American bark Frances Palmer, which had been seized on charge of loading guano without license. The case had been in court, but the French were in too great a hurry to wait for adjudication. The Imperialists are said to have acted disgracefully, levying forced loans of $10,000 [illegible] upon the people [illegible] among [illegible]. They also stole all the goods in the Custom House belonging to merchants, took all the powder in the magazine, and carried off on the Frances Palmer, a large amount of freight owned by French subjects on which duties had been exacted at the rate of $40 per ton. The U S steamer Grand was about to go in pursuit [illegible]

Martinez, who accepted office as after it was evacuated by the French, [illegible] with much favor.

The Sacramento left [illegible] at [illegible] o'clock this morning with 451 passengers and over $1,000,000 in treasure.

This bill proposes to appropriate $400 to Wasco county and $300 to each of the other counties in the District of Grant, Baker, Union and Umatilla counties as a relief for money paid by each of said counties heretofore expended in payment to the Justice of the Supreme Court in that District for extraordinary expenses attending his duties in holding the Circuit Courts there in for the years 1865 and 1866, to take effect from and after the first day of January 1867.

Mr STARKWEATHER moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr HUMASON. I have no objection to the reference provided there is no object in delay, but so far as I can see there appears to be nothing required from the Judiciary Committee and this would only create an unnecessary delay. This is simply a proposition to refund moneys paid out by counties to the Judge of their district who is a State officer. [illegible]

By Overland Telegraph.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 27.

Russian Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Petersburg Borsen Zeitung says all preparations on the main land and the soundings in Behring Straits, for the completion of the telegraph line between Russia and America, are nearly finished. In the course of the present year the telegraph will be constructed over a distance of 3,000 miles beyond Ilenet, and lines will be finished from Grantry Haven to the Keanypack, and along the valley of this river from Eckolta to Gicrsliaga, and, perhaps, even as far as to Ilekorled with the Alaayar line. The cable between Grantry Haven and Soigawena, distance 700 miles, and that between Cape Sponderg and Cape Volto in Bay of Anadir will, it is said, be laid before the end of this month. American and Russian energy has been very quick in taking steps to complete the line which is to connect and hold together the nations whose new alliance, although baptized in champagne and heralded forth by a bouquet of fireworks, cannot be regarded without a slight feeling of uneasiness by some of the westerly nations of Europe.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Since the completion of the Atlantic Cable, and successful fishing up of the old one, whereby there are two cables in successful operation, the Russian extension of the Western Union Telegraph Company has been regarded as a failure even should it be completed. On account of the great length of time it will require to transmit messages, it can never compete with the Atlantic cables. Regarding it in this light, the Board of Directors of the Western Union Company have passed a resolution to pay back to the Russian Extension stockholders the calls and interests, or in other words, to purchase the extension for $2,700,000 with interest, payable in Western Union Bonds at ninety cents on the dollar, thus creating a debt of $3,000,000. The holders of shares regard it as a grab on part of an interested ring in the Board of Directors, but they are helpless to prevent it.

Santa Anna Redivivous.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Gen. Santa Anna has located his headquarters on Staten Island and has opened a regular business bureau for the transaction of matters looking to the delivery of Mexico from French authority. He is occupied, so report goes, constantly, with various people on that subject, and has enlisted the sympathies of the Fenian Brotherhood, Col. Roberts, Gen. Sweeny, and other Fenian Chiefs, are zealous in their attachment to his cause, and are educating the Irish to that belief. Three large steamers have been purchased for their use, and it is believed for their transportation to Mexico. It is stated further that the General is soon to return to St. Thomas.

A Political Movement.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The rumor seems to be well defined and accepted by the Eastern papers that the late mission of Thurlow Weed, Stephen Cresswell and other politicians to Washington was to urge the President to recommend Southern States to adopt the Constitutional amendment, and that in this they had the co-operation of Mr. Seward.

A new three story building at Hillsdale, Michigan, known as the Commercial block, fell with a crash yesterday, involving two adjoining smaller buildings in the ruins, killing Mr. Dudley, his wife and eldest son, who were living in the building.

The Political Situation.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The following are the leaders from the New York papers of Wednesday, Sept. 26th: The Times says: "We have urged upon the country the adoption of the constitutional amendment because we believe it to be just, and one that ought to be made. We supported it long before the Tribune did, and we shall continue to urge its adoption without reference to the action of Congress in regard to the Southern States; but we should like to know that its ratification by the South would be received in a friendly spirit by Congress, and that it would do something to allay the bitterness of political strife which now seems to pervade the country. The Tribune can do a good deal toward satisfying the public anxiety on this subject." In another editorial the Times says, one strong argument urged by the Democrats is that the Southern States will never accept the third section of the constitutional amendment, but thinks they should and will accept it, and that under it new men will take control in Southern politics, and old leaders be gradually neglected or forgotten. It says the South will hardly be willing to sacrifice all the great advantages of sharing in the Government for the sake of these old leaders.

The Herald says President Johnson's anticipations of the formation of a new powerful conservative Northern party, based upon the Philadelphia convention, have been scattered to the winds. The Democracy, in adhering to their old broken and disjointed idols, have defeated this new national party movement. The President thus has no alternative but to fall in with the reconstruction plan of Congress. But the points thus gained, we are sure from facts received as to the present inclinations of Johnson, will immediately facilitate the work of Southern restoration. Had the new party been organized as contemplated the conflict between the radicals might have delayed for several years to come the re-admission of the excluded States. Now we see no obstacle in their admission which may not be overcome before the 4th of March, 1867.

The Evening Post says it is now evident that the people of the Northern States mean to insist upon the adoption of the amendment proposed by Congress. It is useless to discuss the causes which have brought them to this conclusion. The fact is undeniable, and it is the part of practical statesmanship, everywhere in all parts of the country, to be guided by it. The President would do wisely to use his influence with the leaders of public opinion in the Southern States to impress this fact upon their minds and to counsel them to wise and statesmanly action. The shortest way to perfect reorganization now, is to adopt the amendment.

The Tribune says, so long as the rebel element now dominant at the South could trust in the omnipotence of Johnsonism, there was no sign of relenting on its part. Tennessee being under loyal rule, promptly ratified the Constitutional amendment, but no State over which the rebels have sway ever considers the propriety of doing so, and the Legislature of Texas—rebel to the core—has been guilty of the foolish impertinence of returning the Constitutional amendment to the State Department instead of retaining it among its archives. After its rejection, we trust Governor Seward, or whoever may succeed him, will take good care that Texas shall send for it when she discovers that she wants it. We still hope to see the South come forward and offer to solve all remaining difficulties by accepting the broader and simpler platform of universal amnesty and impartial suffrage. But in any contingency, we stand by the Constitutional amendment, and look to see it ratified, and most, if not all of the Southern States restored to representation.

NEW YORK, Sept 28.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says the statement having prevailed that the President is about to modify his policy to the extent of recommending the Constitutional amendment to the adoption of the Southern States, it is given a most emphatic denial. The President considers the amendment a violation of the fifth article of the Constitution, and, therefore, invalid, and that it would be in contravention of his oath to encourage it in any way. There is, however, reason to believe that he contemplates recommending to Congress, at its approaching session, first, the admission of representatives of all the States, and then the proposal of amendments to the Constitution, embodying in a less objectionable form the essential elements of that now pending.

Money Market.

The Post's article says the dullness in the general market has stimulated speculations in stocks. The loan market is extremely easy, and rates tend to favor borrowers. Government stocks are strong for foreign exchange, and firm without much activity. Gold firmer.

Flour less active, without decided change. Wheat unchanged. Corn one cent lower.

The Commercial says the Assistant Treasurer has received orders from Washington suspending the conversion of thirties into bonds of 1865.

Fenian Matters.

Stephens' headquarters were all bustle and activity yesterday. Important negotiations are pending which, when published, will astonish the brotherhood. A nolle prosequi has been entered in the case of Roberts, the Fenian Head Center, and his case has been dismissed.

George M. Snow, for many years commercial editor of the Tribune, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease.

Atlantic Cable—Gen. Dix at Washington.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—No cable news yet, but Craig telegraphs this morning that the press agent in London sends regularly at least two reports daily, therefore, whether the land line works or not, the expenses are the same and collections would be the same.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Gen. Dix had an interview this morning with the President and subsequently with Secretary McCulloch, and returned to New York this evening. It is not publicly known whether he will accept the French mission or the naval office.

Storms on the North-Eastern Coast.

PORT AUX BASQUES, Sept. 28.—There was an awful gale of wind on Saturday, September 22d, on the eastern coast of Newfoundland, and a great many wrecks have been reported. A French frigate was lost at St. Pierre, and several coasters were wrecked. Over 150 dead bodies were picked up at St. Pierre on Sunday, which were lost from different vessels. No further particulars have come to hand.

NEWS BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Money Market.

Advices by the cable are to the 24th at 12 M. The money market is easier. Consols opened at 89 for money; five-twenties at 71¾.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 24.—Breadstuffs quiet and generally without change, except corn, which has advanced and is now quoted at 28s for Western mixed.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The steamer Julia, when leaving her wharf at 4 o'clock this morning for Stockton, burst her steam drum, killing five of the crew and badly wounding the remainder. The purser and 2d engineer were badly scalded.

Guaymas letters of September 10th give detailed accounts of the French evacuation of Sonora, and confirm the news of a desperate battle at Ures on September 4th. The number engaged on both sides are stated at seven thousand. One letter says the French Admiral, when about to evacuate Guaymas, determined to leave that place in the hands of the Indians—the Chief Tanori and tribe, but at the solicitation of the American Consul he was induced to change his orders. The Imperial Consul in this city pronounces this story false. The Imperialists took away the American bark Frances Palmer which had been seized on charge of loading guano without license. The case had been in court, but the French were in too great a hurry to wait for adjudication. The Imperialists are said to have acted disgracefully, having forced $10,000 worth of provisions from the people to distribute among Tanori's savages. They also stole all the goods in the Custom House belonging to merchants, took all the powder in the magazine, and carried off on the Frances Palmer, a large amount of freight owned by French subjects on which prepayment had been exacted at the rate of $40 per ton. The U. S. steamer Saranac was about to go in pursuit of the Frances Palmer.

Martinez who occupied Guaymas after it was evacuated by the French, is not regarded with much favor.

The Sacramento left for Panama at 11 o'clock this morning with 451 passengers and over $1,000,000 in treasure.

Depositions to be taken as in the former case. The joint assembly of the two Houses are to open, examine the proofs and decide who is entitled to this office. Where notices cannot be served upon the person of the respondent, they may be published in the newspapers of general circulation.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS.

Mr. COX gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to change the mode of voting.

Mr. McCOY gave notice of a bill authorizing and making it the duty of Assessors in Grant, Baker, Union and Umatilla counties to collect the poll tax and property tax at the time of making the assessment.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT gave notice of a bill to prevent hogs from running at large.

RELIEF OF THE COUNTIES COMPOSING THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

H. B. No. 3—Providing for the relief of the counties composing the Fifth Judicial District, came up on its second reading. This bill proposes to appropriate $500 to Wasco county, and $400 to each of the other counties in the District of Grant, Baker, Union and Umatilla counties, as a relief for money by each of said counties necessarily expended in payment to the Justice of the Supreme Court in that District for the extraordinary expense attending his duties in holding the Circuit Courts therein for the years 1865 and 1866; to take effect from and after the first day of January, 1867.

Mr. STARKWEATHER moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. HUMASON. I have no objections to such reference provided there is an object in doing so; but so far as I can see there appears to be nothing required from the Judiciary Committee, and this would only create an unnecessary delay. This is simply a proposition to refund moneys paid out by counties to the Judge of their district who is a State officer. It is based upon the fact that the State is required to pay an adequate compensation to the Circuit Court Judges, who act as Supreme Judges also. In this case the pay allowed by the State Constitution being insufficient to defray the expenses of the judge of that district, which comprises about one half of the entire State, it became actually necessary either to increase his salary or to dispense with his services. We looked around but could find no one who was willing to accept the office with the old salary of $2,000. So upon a petition from the citizens the County Commissioners of Wasco county, acting from no partisan reasons, but from necessity, appropriated $250 per annum to be added to the Judge's salary. The counties of Baker, Union, Grant and Umatilla followed the example of appropriating $200 each per annum for the same purpose, trusting to the State to refund the amount. This increased the Judge's salary to $3,050 a year, which was about enough to support that officer and pay his traveling expenses. Now this is a simple proposition of right and justice, and it is for each member of this body to say whether he will favor or oppose it. I can see no reason for its reference and shall oppose it unless I can be made to see some proper object to be accomplished by it.

Mr. GARRETT. Was this addition to Judge Wilson's salary paid out of the common tax or from private contributions from the people?

Mr. HUMASON. From the common tax.

Mr. GEHR. I hope that the bill will not be referred for the reasons already given, and also for other reasons. It is well known that the Constitution prohibits the Judges from receiving more than two thousand dollars a year from the State. I was at the Dalles when this proposition to increase the salary of Judge Wilson was made. He was about to resign because his salary was insufficient to meet his expenses. Mr. Wilson and some others of the most prominent citizens of the county signed a petition asking the County Judge (so as to take the responsibility off his shoulders) to allow him two hundred and fifty dollars a year out of the county treasury. That was not done at the suggestion of Judge Wilson but at the suggestion of Mr. Humason, Col. Gates and others. The other counties gave him two hundred dollars in addition. This has been barely enough to enable the Judge to make a living out of his office. Now we ask that this amount be refunded to the counties. If this should be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, it will only be done for delay, and I hope the gentleman will withdraw it. I would like to move that the rules be suspended and the bill read a third time. I hope the motion to refer will not prevail.

Mr. STARKWEATHER. I simply made the motion in order to draw out a little debate. It is necessary that we should endorse the democracy of those counties or the republicanism of the judge, but, as has been said, our Constitution fixes the salary for each district judge at $2,000 per annum. It is binding upon us as the supreme law of the land. We have taken an oath to support that Constitution, and I conceive that we cannot support that Constitution if we seek to evade its provisions by doing indirectly what we cannot do directly. This appears to me to be a case of that kind. We cannot give the judge of any district more than $2,000 a year, and here is a proposition to give one of those judges $3,000 per annum, part of it under the color of a relief bill. Now if it is necessary to raise any judge's salary why not do it in the proper way, by an amendment to the Constitution? We will expend no more by doing that than to pay him $2,000 out of the State Treasury and $1,050 in addition, through the counties of his district. It strikes me as a plain attempt to evade the Constitution. If this be the case, then I shall consider myself untrue to my oath if I should vote for the final passage of this bill. I moved its reference to the Judiciary Committee in order that legal gentlemen, who are competent to pass upon the merits or demerits of the bill, as well as its constitutionality, may give the House the benefit of their advice. It is perhaps true that the salary of that particular judge is insufficient by reason of the largeness of his district and the high price of the necessaries of life. If so, I would be in favor of increasing his salary by the way prescribed by the Constitution for its amendment. But I shall oppose any illegitimate effort to accomplish that end.

Mr. AVERY regarded his oath as sacredly as any gentleman could his, but regarding this a relief bill he could not hesitate to support it.

MR. HUMASON thought that the House should consider itself very fortunate in having such a zealous economist as the gentleman from Clackamas, [Mr. Starkweather]. That gentleman had manifested a disposition on more than one occasion to guard very closely the public treasury; but his objection to this bill, on Constitutional grounds, was poorly founded. The bill under consideration is simply a relief bill and not in conflict with the Constitution. He did not think the Constitution, as it now is, prohibits the Legislature from increasing the salary of State officers. It provides that they shall not be reduced during the term of the incumbents, but it does not prevent an increase. Some of the Judges of the Supreme Court hold this same opinion. It is, however, a question about which loyal men may possibly differ. In support of his views, the speaker said that in the Convention which passed the State Constitution, it was proposed that the salaries of officers should be so much "and no more," but the words "and no more," were stricken out, so that the salaries might be raised if necessary. He hoped the gentleman would not make it a party question, and that Democratic members would vote for it, although it was an obligation incurred in support of a Republican Judge. It was a question of simple justice and right.

Mr. STARKWEATHER did not wish to trespass upon the time of the House, but desired to say a few words in addition to what he had already said. Though styled the guardian of the treasury, he hoped others would take the same interest that he did in preventing unnecessary extravagance. The gentleman from Wasco had based his argument upon the fact that a proposition that the salaries should be so much and no more, was voted down. Inferring therefrom that the Constitution permits us to raise, but not to reduce the salaries. Now I understand that it was the express design to fix the salaries so that they could neither be raised nor reduced. I was a member of the Constitutional Convention and was present when Mr. Waymire introduced the proposition that the salaries should be "no more," and I remember that those words were rejected with the understanding that the provision as it stood, without those words, was sufficient to cover the design. He desired a decision from the Judiciary Committee on the subject.

Mr. COX spoke in favor of the bill and against its reference. He said the present salaries of officers were fixed at a time when wheat was a legal tender, and when $2,000 were equivalent to $10,000 at present. He viewed this in the light of a relief bill, and not one to permanently increase a salary. Hence he thought it in perfect accordance with the Constitution.

Mr. WITHERS moved to amend by referring to a select committee of three.

Mr. HELM agreed with other gentlemen that this is simply a relief bill, and that it is, therefore, Constitutional. Three counties were under the necessity of making this expenditure, and it is now a mere question of justice as to whether we will reimburse them. He would not designate the gentleman from Clackamas, or any other Republican, as the watch-dog of the Treasury, as long as he remembered the history of the last few years of extravagance. It has been said that that we are thus trying to do indirectly that which we cannot do directly. If that be so, how has it been with reference to the Governor of this State? The Constitution fixes his salary at $1,500, and I remember that our Democratic Governor received but that amount. But the friends of the late Governor have boasted, and I doubt not it is true that his salary has been increased to three thousand dollars. [NOTE—This is a mistake; the Governor of Oregon gets $1,500 a year as Governor, and $200 a year as Inspector of the Penitentiary—$1,700 per annum in all.—REPORTER.] And yet gentlemen say we are seeking to evade the Constitution. I can remember very well the time when if the gentleman from Clackamas [Mr. Starkweather] had raised his objection of unconstitutionality, he would have been denounced as a traitor, because it was treason to prate about the Constitution. He was opposed to delaying the measure for the benefit of the country.

Mr. NICKLIN opposed the bill because he thought it would be setting a bad precedent.

Messrs. McCoy, Cox, Avery, Withers, Worth, Cochran and Hinman, spoke in favor of the bill, and Roland and Garrott against it.

The motion to refer to a select committee carried, and Messrs. Withers and White were appointed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT'S bill to improve lands in Union county was referred to a select committee, consisting of Messrs. Humason, Hendershott, Upton, Garlick and Whiteaker.

The bill in relation to Pilots was read a second time and referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The hour of 12 M. arriving, the House was joined to the Senate in convention to ballot for U. S. Senator. [For proceedings of the joint convention see Senate proceedings.—ED.]

AFTERNOON.

House met as usual. Quorum present. Mr. Avery moved to adjourn. The Speaker suggested that there was business on the table which might be attended to.

Mr. OLNEY suggested that if the motion to adjourn were voted down, he would move to go into committee of the whole House on the proposed amendment to the State Constitution.

The motion to adjourn carried.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1866.

Our Senator Elect.

The second great triumph of the present session of the Legislature has been achieved by the Union party. The ratification of the Constitutional Amendment was the first victory; and this is now fitly followed by the election of a United States Senator, who is in the strictest sense, identified with the Union party of Oregon, and of the nation.

Prior to Saturday, thirteen ballots had been taken in the Joint Convention, with no definite result. On Saturday, the Convention voted three times, and on the sixteenth or last ballot, H. W. Corbett, of Portland, received 38 votes, and was therefore elected—every member sent to the Legislature, as a Unionist, voting for him.

We believe that the election of Mr. Corbett is generally acceptable to the Union party. So far as we are aware, no other feeling exists among Union men than that of satisfaction with the result. Of course there were those who, while the election was undecided and they were free to choose, preferred their own favorites. We believe that a large majority of the Union party thought Gov. Gibbs fairly entitled to the honor, since he had contested for and won the caucus nomination; but after it become apparent that he could not succeed, the party demanded of its representatives the election of some other man—one who is true to its principles and a representative of the interests of the State. Than Mr. Corbett, a more acceptable man could not have been found. The Unionists of Oregon have abundant reason to congratulate themselves on his election.

Reports have been industriously circulated for some days that Mr. Corbett does not stand with the Union party upon the principal issues now before the country. We know whereof we speak when we say that these reports are untrue. Mr. Corbett is warmly in favor of the constitutional amendment, the principal, and in fact the only matter now immediately at issue in national politics. He believes the South should be required to adopt it as a preparatory measure to restoration. To support this amendment is to sustain Congress and the Union party; to oppose it is to stand in opposition to both. Mr. Corbett's position, therefore, is not doubtful. Whatever may be stated by other parties or journals on this subject, his political record is too well known to admit of a doubt of his constancy to the party which elected him. His position in relation to the issues now before the country is satisfactory to the Union members of the Legislature. They have no apprehensions about it. We know that his election meets with general approbation here; and we have no doubt it will give as general satisfaction throughout the State as that of any other person who could have been chosen.

Mr. Corbett is well acquainted with the wants of the State, and is closely identified with its leading interests. He is a man of enterprise and of public spirit, and will undoubtedly prove himself a capable and efficient Senator.

We may all assure ourselves that the interests of the State will not suffer in such hands as his. With his able and upright colleague, Judge Williams, he will work assiduously for the good of his State and for the perpetuation of the principles of the Union party.

After the 4th of March next, the delegation from the Pacific States in both Houses of Congress, will be a unit on the great questions which now divide the sentiment of the country. If the Democracy like the prospect, we assure them that we are in a situation to enjoy it.

Oregon is in favor of the Amendment.

The Copperhead organs are still in great distress because the Constitutional Amendment passed the Oregon Legislature. We supposed they would feel hurt. Every defeat they have met during the last six years has pained them. While the war was in progress they could scarcely submit with decent resignation to the defeat of their Southern friends. It was all unconstitutional. Now, their political defeats are all accomplished, as they tell us, by fraud. It is insisted that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States was pushed through the Oregon Legislature in opposition to the will of the people of the State. Let us see about this charge. In the first place it should be mentioned that the Union party, as shown by the late election, has a majority of fully 500 votes in the State. It elected every officer on the State ticket and a majority of the lower branch of the Legislature. Concede that the Democrats are fairly entitled to the members from Grant county. The Unionists are entitled to one certainly, and perhaps two from Polk, more than they now have. If the Unionists from Grant ought to have been ousted before the vote on the amendment was taken, so ought the Democrats from Polk. There was no reason for haste in the one case that would not have applied with equal force to the other. Had these cases all been settled before the vote was taken, (supposing the Polk county contest to have been settled fairly) the result would have been the same as that already reached. And even without a decision in our favor in the Polk county contest (the Union members of Grant county being ousted) we should have passed the amendment, had every Unionist in the Legislature properly represented the wishes of his constituents. One Union member in the House voted against the measure. Does he or any one else suppose that so many as five of his constituents—those who gave him their votes—approve of his action? He simply misrepresented them by his vote against the amendment. We insist that a majority of the people of the State are in favor of it, and that the Union majority in the late election is evidence of that fact.

An exciting contest is going on in Nevada for the seat in the United States Senate to become vacant in March next by the expiration of the term of Senator Nye. Nye is again contesting for the place. His principal competitor is C. E. De Long. This contest is wholly within the Union party—the Democrats make no efforts to secure the prize.

Personal.—Several gentlemen from the Capital, at present visiting in this city, called upon us yesterday. Among them were Hon. W. C. Johnson, Senator from Clackamas; Messrs. Witzel and Nicklin, Representatives from Marion, and W. A. McPherson Esq., State Printer and editor of the Unionist.

Editorial Change.—Last week we inadvertantly omitted to notice the change that has occurred in the editorial management of the Vancouver Register. H. G. Struve, Esq., now conducts that paper. Under his management it is a very valuable local journal.

We have received a letter from an old Copperhead "away down in Vermont," complaining that we say too severe things about his party and its allies, the Southern rebels. Here is another individual who is willing to forgive the Govern-

Through some omission, mistake or accident for which we cannot account, our reports of Saturday's Legislative proceedings failed to reach us by the mail of last evening. We therefore are able to present only the proceedings of the previous day.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

San Francisco, Sept. 30.—Last evening an attachment was taken out and levied on the stock in trade of Newman Bros., manufacturers of brushes and importers of wood and willow ware, for forty thousand dollars. The brothers composing this firm reside in New York, and it is probable that their failure originated there as the San Francisco house has always been considered a sound one, and its profits been large for years. The stock on hand was supposed to be sufficient to pay a considerable part of the amount for which it is attached at this time.

Company's steamer Julia, which was built in this city some years ago for the Stockton trade, left her berth at the foot of Broadway for Stockton as usual at 4 o'clock yesterday P. M., fully freighted but with a small number of passengers. In about a quarter of an hour after getting under way, and when off the buoy below Alcatraz Island, the attention of the chief engineer was called to the fact of the leakage of the steam drum, which is situated about twenty feet abaft the bar abreast the cook's galley, and twenty feet from the extreme bow of the boat. The Captain, immediately after the report was made to him, ordered boat about believing damage light. She had scarcely turned her prow cityward before the floor bottom of the steam drum was blown open for the space of three feet, making an aperture of about six inches in width. Steam of course instantly forced its way through the opening and rushed into the passage way on the starboard side of the boat. In this passage way at that moment were 16 of the crew, nearly all of whom were deck hands, who were seated at a table eating their dinners. They were suddenly and without a moment's warning enveloped in vapor, and nearly all on the instant inhaled steam. The following were found dead, or in the agonies of dissolution: Jno. Doherty, fireman; J. Rasson, deck hand; F. Silvia, deck hand; G. Lyon, deck hand, and Michael Curtin, deck hand. The above list comprises all of the dead so far as known. The men at the table who were scalded but still survive, are Patrick Collins, deck hand; George Alligios, deck hand, slightly scalded; Joseph Frazer, deck hand, badly; Andrew Jackson, deck hand, slightly; James Creighton, seriously; Frank Perlin, deck hand, slightly; Chas. Couley, deck hand, seriously; George Helligrass, deck hand, severely; John Grace, deck hand, dangerously. At the moment of the accident Thomas J. Cotton, clerk of the Julia, who was passing along the starboard side of the boat, caught the full force of the steam, badly scalded about the legs and arms. On the arrival of the boat he was conveyed to his residence, where he received surgical attendance. Second Engineer, Joshua Graves, in discharge of his duties was one of the unfortunates. Whilst passing the steam chest the explosion occurred. He was painfully but not dangerously scalded. Immediately after the Julia had headed for town, steamer Capital ran up along side, and at the moment of the accident Capt. Pool, with characteristic promptitude took the disabled steamer in tow and brought her down to the city. Capt. Conklin from the moment of the accident until his steamer was laid alongside the wharf, was untiring in efforts to render the condition of wounded as comfortable as possible. On the arrival of the steamer, most of the wounded were conveyed to St. Mary's Hospital; the dead to the undertaker's establishment on Sacramento street. The features of all of them are terribly disfigured and blackened almost beyond recognition.

Immediately after the explosion, a passenger who was standing within a few feet of the bar, and near the scene of the awful calamity, sprang to the guards and in sheer fright jumped into the bay. A boat from the Capital rescued him. The damage done the boat is trifling. Not one of the passengers on board the Julia was hurt; in fact most of them were unaware of the accident until informed of it by others.

The jury which tried John Sharon for killing Michael Slattery, yesterday rendered a verdict of not guilty, having been absent only one hour.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

H. W. CORBETT ELECTED SENATOR.

Salem, Sept. 28—2 P. M.

H. W. Corbett, of Portland, was elected U. S. Senator to-day by a vote of 38 to 31. Mr. Corbett received every Union vote in both Houses.

A party recently went out hunting from Eugene City and killed nine deer. So says the Journal.

THE ART AMONG THE ANCIENTS.—Recent researches among the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum have led some writers to think that the inhabitants of those ruined cities knew something of PHOTOGRAPHY. Whether this is so or not the most brilliant results are being brought out of the art at the present day. At the GALLERY of ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 89 First street, may be seen some exquisite gems in the PICTURE line that are unapproachable as works of art. We would advise those who wish to adorn their parlors and albums in a tasteful manner, to give those gentlemen a call.

THE CONTEST FOR U. S. SENATOR at Salem does not in the least interfere with the rapid sale of those FINE BEAVER and all other kinds of FINE BUSINESS AND BLACK SUITS at such low figures by KOHN & FISHEL, at the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET. They are CONSTANTLY RECEIVING GOODS from their House in New York, and are thus enabled to keep on hand the LATEST STYLES and at PRICES THAT DEFY COMPETITION.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine CATHOLICON does not contain one particle of calomel or mercury, and cases of Female Complaints which require other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, Headache, Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Difficulties connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON

Is a most successful remedy for Gravel and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy, the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of functional and general health from budding womanhood to the turn of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

THE RACES.—The races on Saturday afternoon, over the Multnomah course, were well attended. The afternoon was highly favorable, and the track in good order. The first race was a trotting match for a purse of $500 between Donaldson's black horse, Fly-by-night, and Acker's roan mare, Nellie, mile heats, best two in three. The betting before the meeting was even, the horse seeming the favorite. About the time of starting, two to one was offered upon the horse, and no takers. The mare won the toss. The start was fine, the mare in the lead. At the quarter pole the horse was several lengths ahead, which he increased to the end of the heat, winning easily by 60 feet, in 2:42.

Time, 2:42—2:52.

The second race then came off. The entries were:—Donaldson named Selim; Acker named Bogus, and Sherwood named Peerless. This race was the one for which pools were sold the evening previous at the Oro Fino. The pools were not freely taken. The betting stood—Selim, one; Bogus, five; and Peerless, two. Bogus won the toss, Selim next; and Peerless the outside. The horses got away very evenly. Bogus took the lead and kept it, winning by fifty yards. Time, 3:15. On the second heat the horses were brought up beautifully and went away. Selim took the lead from the start and rapidly widened the gap, distanced Bogus and came in winner of the race.

[illegible] race, a single dash of a mile, between Henderson's sorrel horse and John Lyons' sorrel mare, for $25 a side, ended in the mare winning the race.

SERENADE.—The Senator elect, Mr. H. W. Corbett, was serenaded at his residence, on Saturday evening, at half past eleven o'clock. A small party of Mr. Corbett's friends arranged the serenade in honor of his election as United States Senator. The music was discoursed by the brass band. The party was well received with welcome and a polite invitation to walk into the house and partake of a collation, when Senator Corbett thanked the party for the honor done him, and said that he would, while in the Senate, labor for the benefit of the whole country and remain true to his party. To the lunch, all present did full justice. Bumpers were filled and drank to the health and happiness of our newly elected Senator. Patriotic responses were given. From Mr. Corbett's the party proceeded to the residence of Hon. [illegible] Logan. After the serenade, Mr. Logan appeared and thanked them for the honor done him, and being called upon for a speech, declined, saying—"That the Senator, or at any time chosen for a Ratification Meeting, they would hear from him." "Good nights" were given, and the party dispersed.

[illegible]—At one o'clock yesterday we noticed the arrival of twenty-four members of the Legislature. They will spend to-day in the city and return to Salem in the morning. Among them is a joint committee of six consisting of Messrs. J. C. Cartwright, L. O. Sterns, R. H. Crawford, of the Senate, and Messrs. James Gingles, Jno. Whitaker and [illegible], of the House. The other members are Messrs. R. A. Witzel, F. G. Lockhart, J. W. T. Miller, E. W. Avery, J. L. O. Nicklin, I. Cox, J. A. & A. Worth, W. D. Jeffries, C. M. Caldwell, G. B. Roberts, A. [illegible] and J. S. White. Also, Hon. Jesse Applegate, W. A. McFarland, of the Unionist, Samuel [illegible], George A. Edes, S. Durbin, and others.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A man named Charles Williams, who has lived for several years in Columbia county, opposite Oak Point, died a few days since from the effects of a rupture, brought on by excessive hard work. Williams was an old man, and had accumulated considerable property, in the way of a farm, stock, etc., and as it is not known that he has any relatives in this part of the country, an administrator will be appointed. He was attended in his last hours by Mr. J. W. Skidmore and J. W. [illegible], of this city, who were his nearest neighbors. Mr. Williams was esteemed very highly by those who knew him.

POLICE COURT.—Before his Honor on Saturday we had the usual number of drunks. John Smith was arrested by officer Saunders for drunkenness, and being found lying on the side walk on First street, was sent to jail for 1 days. James Wright was arrested by officer [illegible] being drunk and was found lying on Front street between Yamhill and Alder; he was sent up for two days. [illegible] was arrested by officer Townsend for disorderly conduct, and was found lying upon the Sidewalk [illegible] 36 dollars and costs. Henry Sevots, arrested for disorderly conduct, being drunk [illegible], was sent up for three days.

The committee on streets and public improvements met yesterday at 2 o'clock for the purpose of [illegible] bids for the improvement of B street. [illegible] awarded the contract for grading and [illegible], also upon his own premises, Samuel [illegible] a contract for placing the sidewalk and [illegible] J. H. Perry & Co. received [illegible] for building certain sidewalks, also the contract [illegible] the whole street. The bids ranged from $270 to $285 per perch. Tacklebury [illegible] for building the sidewalk and the [illegible].

[illegible]—Last Saturday the diver in one of [illegible] over the river bottom in the ship channel [illegible] soldiers coat, cap and [illegible]. The cap is [illegible] and marked "Co. H, 1st Reg." Nothing [illegible] known of the matter. Two sheets of a ship's [illegible] were taken out last week. The work is still [illegible] rapidly. There is now but the defect of the [illegible] from which the dredge can be derived and they [illegible] ready that as soon as possible. Mr. Walker will remain [illegible] this week, when we will give further particulars.

[illegible]—On last Saturday evening the Apollo [illegible] gave a pleasant entertainment at the old Willamette [illegible]. There was a very good house who seemed [illegible]. They encored almost every act. Tom [illegible]'s whistling is inimitable, all should go and hear [illegible]; he will soon become a favorite. The amiable plantation dance is first rate. Their singing is good; the [illegible] better than we have usually heard. Johnny Mack, Sam Lorimer, and all in fact deserve a notice. They play again to-night.

[illegible]—Mr. Dennis, formerly of this city, has recently built for his own use, at Astoria, a regular racing [illegible]. We hear it rumored that Mr. Nice, of Oak Point, and other gentlemen who visited California about a year ago, and bore off the first prizes in a contest, are willing to meet the Californians for another match on the waters of their own bay, or in the Columbia river. [illegible] that a match will be pulled in the Columbia [illegible]. The boats we have seen are trim, neat [illegible] and [illegible] movers.

SALMON.—The [illegible] is closed. About 30,000 bbls have been taken during the [illegible], worth, in the aggregate, over $300,000. The market is already bare. A single barrel of [illegible] can now be procured. All the season's catch is now either sold or engaged. Nice & Co., of Oak Point, have taken the [illegible] number of barrels during the [illegible] and intend constructing extensive [illegible]. Elliott & Co., of Oak Point, intend [illegible] largely next season. Their [illegible] are up and machinery ready.

[illegible]—The treasure shipped per steamer Oriflamme,

Wells, Fargo & Co.	$242,000
Ladd & Tilton	40,000
[illegible] Bros.	30,000
[illegible]	50,000
	$362,000

[illegible]—Prof. Vincent, Balloonist, arrived [illegible] from California by the Montana. He proposes to visit the Albany Fair the present week and the [illegible] which commences about the middle of the [illegible] a series of making balloon ascensions on [illegible]. He is accompanied by Eustace Bnisley, [illegible]. Both gentlemen go immediately to Albany.

UNION TRIUMPH.—A public demonstration will take place this evening at Lappeus & Knowle's hall, in honor of H. W. Corbett, our Senator elect. A short address may be expected from Mr. Corbett on the occasion. Hon. David Logan, Hon. J. H. Mitchell, and others, it is [illegible] will make speeches. Of course everybody will attend.

[illegible] SALE.—Remember the large lot of goods to be sold to-day in the second story over Harker's store. Go and get a catalogue and read the list. Such an opportunity to [illegible] goods cheap does not often occur. A large lot of goods will be thrown upon the market. Let all go and see the sale.

[illegible]—We would call attention to the new advertisement of Barman Bros. They have just received and opened a large stock of new styles. They have made [illegible] arrangements in San Francisco, and will soon open the City of Paris Store. Go and see.

[illegible]—The steamer Reporter on Saturday evening brought down 47 boxes apples; 4 half-barrels eggs; 3 bxs [illegible] chickens; 21 gunnies bacon; 480 sks flour; 1 bale woolen goods; and 23 sks feed.

WHITE HOUSE.—Mr. N. Williams, the popular host of the White House, advertises his new race course now open [illegible]. Let the fast horses go and try it—2:40 on the plank.

[illegible]—The meeting of the club set for this evening is postponed until Tuesday evening, when a full attendance is expected.

YOUNG'S RIVER.—The Coach this morning takes a full cargo of brick, lime, plaster, and other building material, consigned to Elijah Jeffries, Young's River.

SALUTE.—A salute was fired at Vancouver, last evening, in honor of the election of H. W. Corbett to the U. S. Senate.

THE ORIFLAMME.—The steamer Oriflamme, Capt. Francis Connor, sailed from San Francisco for this city on the [illegible].

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent;
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baleful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is
HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 631 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The Discovery of Chloroform.

Our own great dead! We neglect even our own great men! There is one alive now whom all men honor, love and bless, but it might rain stars and garters, and statues and pensions, in the herald-ridden island, before anything worthy of his glorious gift to humanity would be conferred on Dr. James Simpson, of Edinburgh. Science, humanity, and solid, sterling worth, are so scurvily treated, and learn to be so modest, while lucky knavery and good courtiership glitter with rewards, that he will probably not thank us for bringing his name into the light. We shall be even asked by some, "who is Dr. Simpson of Edinburg?" We answer that Dr. Simpson is the man who gave to the world the grand, the blessed gift of chloroform. Come with us, inquiring public, and a careless star-scattering government man, to the operating room of a London hospital. Do you know what this room used to be in 1847? A scene of agony and keen torture unspeakable, to which men were obliged to apprentice themselves, with sickness and fainting fits, ere they could witness it removed. Battle wounds are nothing; pain that comes and goes is nothing; but to have a surgeon's knife slowly searching in the home of life—to have his scalpel parting the living tissue—to feel the saw rasping the bone, and forceps pinning the nerve, and to be held down against the agony till gentle nature took sense and agony away in a sickly swoon—that was once the horrible experience of the operating room. Shall we make the picture complete with a sketch of those cock-pits where the stump of the man-of-war's-man was plunged into hot pitch to stop the bleeding, and when poor Jack had come-to again the surgeon's knife was ready to cut, and shiver him under his own eyes? Or shall we speak of the sight that Liston and Brodie have seen a hundred times when some unhappy girl accursed with a cruel disease, has been carried white and shaking into the theatre, and has died in agony under the slash of the knife! Ah! others than girls grow white, for generation after generation, at the sight of that awful knife, so necessary and so cruel! Strong men borne from the battle, turned silent and pale, from its dreadful gleam; brave hearts chose death rather than the living anguish of the operating table. Yet for all the years of disease and wounds, and lessons that had afflicted humanity, there was no resource in many a hopeless case but the slow agony and uncertain gain.

What did Mr. James Simpson do? Why—heaven bless him for his gentle work—he sat, and schemed, and read, and labored, experimentalized, and ended by putting himself and his companion, Dr. Keith, under the study table with the fumes of chloroform.

But when their consciousness returned, the terrors of the operating room were gone.

Science, which gives so slowly, but with both hands full, when she gives at all, has honored his humanity with the dearest and most precious boon that suffering mortality ever received. A sweet and sublime anodyne was found out, which steals the feeling of the frame away, and leaves the patient quiet and the doctor free. Go to the operating room now and mark the glorious difference. The benign vapor is administered and the knife does its work without a tremor or a spasm; the sufferer wakes up and asks, "when will it be?"

The deliverance from pain is the boon that Simpson conferred on men and women who suffer from maladies that call for the knife and ligature; and since God proclaimed the law that pain and sorrow, misery and trouble should depart by man's patient works, as by man's faults they came, there have been but few nobler gifts bestowed on suffering mortals. Set up your statue for a great dead physician, generous people of France, and don't ask what we have done for our great and good living doctor. You made him a member of your Academy, and sent him your Monthmon prize, and King Oscar of Sweden made him Knight of St. Olaf.

We who own him, who speak his language, who were the first to benefit by the splendid scientific boon he bestowed on our hospitals and sick rooms, and on the couch where motherhood fulfills, in exquisite anguish, the woman's share of the primal curse—we hardly know his name, and did our best some of us to back his discoveries with sober theories that pain was meant for man, and that it was impious to steal the agony from the fainting mother, or stay the death-sweat on the forehead of the weak victim who writhes under the operating knife. We compassionate at last towards the deepening groans of humanity, are only reminded of him by yon statue which has been raised to Jenner; and when we think of something worth giving him who found out this divine boon for us—this fairy gift of chemistry, we remember that the courtiers and the swells, and the diplomats fill the list of honors, so that we can merely give the Scotch Doctor our barren thanks while we are sound, and our blessings when the surgeons get hold of us, and the case of instruments comes out.—London Telegraph.

Good out of Evil for Austria.—The condition of life for Austria is that she should remain German. By withdrawing altogether from the German Confederacy, by allowing Prussia an uncontrolled ascendancy over the the whole Fatherland, Austria has not only disarmed the wrath of her adversary, but has actually enlisted him in her behalf. As an ally and dependent on the great State that Prussia is trying to constitute in Germany, Austria is entitled to the future sympathy and support of her conqueror. As soon as Austria ceases to be a rival, she becomes a natural ally and auxiliary to Prussia, and as such it is for the interest of Prussia not only that she should retain as much of her strength as this war will leave her, but also that her strength should be founded, as it was before, on the supremacy of her German over her non-German elements. Blood is thicker than water, and it is not to be expected that Prussia, after working out her purpose with her rival, would suffer the Magyar, the Pole or the Sclave to have the upper hand of his German fellow-subject, or to destroy that German organization which has been the secret of Austrian strength for so many centuries. For the interest of Prussia and of all Germany, Austria must either continue to be what she is, or she must cease to exist. It is through Austria only that the banks of the Danube, the Black Sea, the Adriatic and the Mediterranean are opened to German enterprise. Left to themselves alone with their fellow-subjects, the German Austrians might soon be overpowered, and Austria would find herself in the condition of the "Sick Man" of the Bosphorus, at the head of a feeble ruling race, against whom the subject races would invoke the assistance of powerful neighbors.—All of Austria that was not lost to Germany, would easily fall a prey to Russia on the east and to Italy on the south. But against any chance of a further dissolution of the Hapsburg monarchy, Prussia at the head of Germany could easily provide. A timely conclusion of peace leaves Austria in possession of her army; and that army, although freely recruited among all the people of the Empire, is, owing to the prevalence of officers from all parts of Germany, a strictly German institution. The mere strength of "big battalions" and the support of a neighbor who was but yesterday an enemy would seem to be but a poor basis on which to ground the freedom or the dignity of a State; but it is not easy to devise a better state of things for Austria; and, after all, whatever may be said of the brilliant qualities of the Pole or Hungarian, there is no doubt that all the civilization which can ever make its way to those Eastern regions must necessarily be the result of the spread of German influence there.—London Times of August 4th.

The New York Times has a special correspondent at New Orleans, whose late letters presents the following inviting picture of society in the Crescent City:

"The great drawback, from complete unity and restoration in the South now, however, is not the class which controls the business and commercial interests of the section, and which should control it politically; but it is the middle grade of society—the ignorant victims of the teachings of demagogues, whose every sentiment of morality and honesty, has been blunted by the influence of slavery. The great mass are demoralized, and accepting the ravings of unsubdued traitors as their gospel, they are cruel and unrelentless in their demeanor toward Northerners when they dare to be. Another serious stumbling block is the fact that the people here allow political sentiments to influence them in their social relations. Women will not sit in the same church pew with Yankees or Union men. With rare exceptions the houses of Confederate families are closed against all who did not fight for the rebellion. The result of this is acrimonious recrimination, and finally open enmity."

Pollard on General Grant.—Pollard, the editor of the Richmond Examiner, has returned to Virginia, having faithfully assisted in the happy proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention. In his paper of the 23d of August, announcing that "Jefferson Davis will soon be released on parole," and that "his release will give joy to millions," and also that "the manly conduct of Mayor Monroe, of New Orleans, has met the approbation of the President," pays his compliments to General Grant for appearing at the White House when the resolutions of the Philadelphia Convention were presented by his namesake, Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland:

"We believe nothing in General Grant's appearance, on the day referred to, but that he desired to make a show of himself with the characteristic vanity of his nature. He looked to no construction that might be put upon his ranging himself by the side of Andrew Johnson on that occasion. He thought only of being the observed of all observers—the cynosure of all eyes. He is just the man to be jealous of the prize beef that parades the streets decked in variegated ribbons, attended by a mob of ragged urchins. We know that he is a radical in the centre of his hard and cruel heart that is touched by nothing that does not flatter his self-conceit. He may pretend to be conservative, but he is essentially a destructive, and must be that or nothing. It is fortunate for us that we are escaping so rapidly from his ruthless hands, and woe unto us if he should be again put in authority over us.

A Recusant Bridegroom.—In Chariton, Iowa, recently, the friends of a gentleman and lady, who had mutually plighted their troth, were invited to see them made one. The clergyman came, and the people came, the bride was ready and the bridegroom was there; but he, discovering just before the knot was tied that there was a mortgage on the lady's property, refused to be united to her.

SOMETHING NEW!

THE NEW LIGHT!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

Artificial light of some sort, is a universal necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided; it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp, for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper-light, ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufrenu, corner of Morrison and First streets.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once relaxed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
